
2. Snow & Music Weekend in the Saas Valley

Off to the snow with the party band "Supreme"

The second Snow & Music Weekend will be held in the glacier village from 12-14 March 2010. The party band "Supreme" will be creating a lively atmosphere in the Saas-Fee village square to get the snow sports weekend under way in the Spring sunshine.

This is the second time that Saas-Fee/Saastal Tourism will be offering its guests and visitors a Snow & Music Weekend in the Spring, with an open-air concert and an attractive range of packages. Enjoying the snow in the Spring sunshine, with music and party to start things off - that's what makes a weekend in the snow-covered mountain region such fun.

The free concert in the village square on Friday (12.03.) will be starting right at the après-ski hour to 'kick-off' the event in the snow. "Supreme", the band which comes from Austria, will provide an eventful and exciting party mix to create a relaxed atmosphere. The dynamic entertainers together with their lively female singer will be beginning their fantastic show at 17:00 hrs. The band's repertoire ranges from top hits to hot rock classics, après-ski hymns right up to mega oldies designed to give visitors the goose bumps. The professional and polished live programme is continually being updated with the latest hits added. With its unique entertainment show the aspiring international party band is pointing the way ahead in the international music scene. The band members have already performed with leading artists on live stages and popular TV live shows. For example with G.G. Anderson, Rex Gildo, Karel Gott, Hansi Hinterseer, Nicole, Leonard, Andy Borg, Patrick Lindner, DJ Ötzi or Jeannette Biedermann. With all this experience and their stage presence you can also be sure that "Supreme" will provide a party programme with a colourful mix and plenty of excitement in Saas-Fee.

Finally, after such a musical and cheerful start to the weekend, visitors will be enticed onto the fantastic slopes on Saturday and Sunday. Still tapping their feet to the beat of the music and with earmuffs on their heads it almost goes without saying that the only place to be is skiing down the slopes in the warm Spring sunshine.

Snow & Music package offers

So anyone who's still free on the weekend of 12 – 14 March 2010 is cordially invited to the second Snow & Music Weekend in Saas-Fee/Saastal. Information on the concert as well as attractive package offers is available from the Saas-Fee/Saastal Tourist Office at www.saas-fee.ch or Tel.: +41 (0)27 958 18 68. sf/08.02.2010